PHOTOS FROM THE WARBIRDS AND CLASSICS OVER THE MIDWEST

The 2021 Warbirds and Classics event is in the books for this year, and it seems like everyone had a great time at this fantastic event. As always, it was great to see these awesome aircraft and the brilliant piloting and building skills on display. The spectators that I talked to had a wonderful time, and I was able to bring three generations of my family out to enjoy the event on Saturday and Sunday. Except for some rain on Thursday the weather was great and the field was in top-notch condition. A huge thank you goes out to everyone that helped with the event. I hope you enjoy these photos.

GETTING READY FOR THE WARBIRDS

This year I was able to take a few photos while club members prepared the field for the Warbirds event. Club members volunteer to prepare the field for the event every year, as well as take everything down after. Working like a well-oiled machine, the crew got all the runway, taxiway, tent areas, and parking lot markings done with only a small hiccup. Thankfully, Clyde was able to quickly diagnose and repair the paint pump on the line painting machine and get it running.

RECENT IMPROVEMENTS AT THE FIELD

Have you noticed the worktables near the clubhouse/shelter recently? They look fantastic! A huge thank you goes out to Bob Johnson for supplying the carpet and glue, and to Barry Thoma and his friend Darrel Hurckman for painting the tables and installing the carpet and trim. Excellent work you guys! Thank you to Clyde Denzer for the information and the photo.

RECOGNITION ON SOCIAL MEDIA

I spotted a couple of posts on Facebook from Horizon Hobby, E-flite, and Balsa USA during our event. It's nice to see the event getting recognition and exposure, and how about Roy's Bird Dog! Does that mean he's famous now?

Seen recently at the Fon Du Lac Warbird event. A great "adaptation" of our best selling Timber to a Bird-dog replica. Please feel free to share with us all your personalisations and adaptations of any of your E-flite models. No matter how big or small.
